

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Dr. Riley Clark and the team at Rogue Valley Implant Center are committed to giving you superior dental care, and we want you to feel as comfortable and informed as possible throughout your treatment. This includes understanding your treatment plan, as well as our financial policy. Carefully read the following, then let us know if you have further questions.

Many people think if they have an employer provided benefit plan (insurance), it is the benefit plan that owes the doctor for their services. This is not the case. The benefit plan contract is between the patient, the employer, and the benefit plan company.

As a courtesy to our patients, we'll bill your benefit plan; however, the responsibility for payment will remain with you. In order for us to bill your benefit plan, you must supply us with complete information about your benefit plan, including any necessary forms, group number, phone numbers and addresses. This office can make no guarantees of the benefit plan's estimate of payment.

We require a down payment for your total treatment fee to be paid at your pre-op appointment, unless prior arrangements have been made. The remaining balance of your treatment fee is due at your uncover and implant test appointment.

A down payment is required to help cover the costs of materials and lab services that must be ordered days, and sometimes weeks, before your surgery. A portion of this down payment is nonrefundable as it is used to cover these expenses.

We accept Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, Care Credit, cash or check.
